

There's still plenty of time to come in and see the stocking stuffers that are available for your favorite stitcher – who might just be YOU! Let's start with those great Needle Park Avenues from Yarn Tree! That little magnetized gadget is terrific when you're working with multiple needles on an intricate project. I'm in the middle of a six-tone pink geometric design, and would be lost without mine. I have two on hand, and should have more in before Christmas. If you'd like me to hold one for you, give me a shout.
