

Every so often, a customer tells me she won't use Silk & Ivory because it pills. Susan of brown paper packages explains how to prevent this problem.

“Take each end of your thread and scrub them hard simultaneously on your wrist. One end will stay together better than the other. Thread your needle with that end. Not only is your pilling problem solved, the thread is much easier to use on 18-mesh canvas.”